

INDULGENCE THERAPEUTIC MASSAGE CONSENT FORM

We respect your decision to have massage therapy as part of your health maintenance program and strive to keep you safe and comfortable.

Each client and therapist is unique. Clients have preferences when it comes to pressure, room temperature and techniques used. Therapists have different approaches to massage therapy and as such, we encourage open communication with regards to the areas of concern from our clients and for each session to be fully explained by our therapists prior to the massage commencing.
